This document provides a summary of the situation across all provinces and territories. For further details, please refer to the latest deep dive report for the domestic market updated on October 27, 2020.

British Columbia
- No self-isolation requirements for residents returning from out-of-province for leisure travel.
- IV Inter-Provincial

Alberta
- No self-isolation requirements for residents returning from out-of-province for leisure travel.
- IV Inter-Provincial

Saskatchewan
- No self-isolation requirements for residents returning from out-of-province for leisure travel.
- IV Inter-Provincial

Manitoba
- Residents returning from outside of the province for leisure travel must self-isolate for 14 days; exception for residents returning directly from western Canada or northeastern Ontario.
- II Hyper Local

Ontario
- No self-isolation requirements for residents returning from out-of-province for leisure travel.
- II Hyper Local

Quebec
- No self-isolation requirements for residents returning from out-of-province for leisure travel.
- II Hyper Local

Newfoundland and Labrador
- Residents returning from outside of the province for leisure travel must self-isolate for 14 days; exception for residents returning directly from other Atlantic provinces.
- III Intra-Provincial

Prince Edward Island
- Residents returning from outside of the province for leisure travel must self-isolate for 14 days; exception for residents returning directly from other Atlantic provinces.
- III Intra-Provincial

New Brunswick
- Residents returning from outside of the province for leisure travel must self-isolate for 14 days; exception for residents returning directly from other Atlantic provinces.
- III Intra-Provincial

Nova Scotia
- Residents returning from outside of the province for leisure travel must self-isolate for 14 days; exception for residents returning directly from other Atlantic provinces.
- III Intra-Provincial

Yukon
- Residents returning from outside of the territory for leisure travel must self-isolate for 14 days; exception for residents returning directly from another Yukon.
- III Intra-Territorial

Northwest Territories
- Residents returning from outside of the territory for leisure travel must self-isolate for 14 days; exception for residents returning directly from another Northwest Territories or Nunavut.
- III Intra-Territorial

Nunavut
- Residents returning from outside of the territory for leisure travel must self-isolate for 14 days; exception for residents returning directly from Churchill, Manitoba.
- IV Inter-Provincial

---

1 For additional information on methodology and a description of the recovery signals, please see Methodological Notes.