This document provides a summary of the situation across all provinces and territories. For further details, please refer to the latest deep dive report for the domestic market updated on May 11, 2021.

Ontario
- As of May 25, fully vaccinated residents returning from outside of the territory must self-isolate for 14 days.

British Columbia
- No self-isolation requirements for residents returning from out-of-province for domestic leisure travel.

Alberta
- No self-isolation requirements for residents returning from out-of-province for domestic leisure travel.

Saskatchewan
- No self-isolation requirements for residents returning from out-of-province for domestic leisure travel.

Manitoba
- No self-isolation requirements for residents returning from out-of-province for domestic leisure travel.

Quebec
- Residents returning from outside of the territory must self-isolate for 14 days.

New Brunswick
- Residents returning from outside of the territory must self-isolate for 14 days.

Newfoundland and Labrador
- Residents returning from outside of the territory must self-isolate for 14 days.

Prince Edward Island
- Residents returning from outside of the territory must self-isolate for 14 days.

Nunavut
- Residents returning from outside of the territory for domestic leisure travel must self-isolate for 14 days.

Yukon
- As of May 25, fully vaccinated residents returning from outside of the territory for domestic leisure travel may get tested on the 8th day for reduced self-isolation.

Methodological Notes
- 1 For additional information on methodology and a description of the recovery signals, please see Methodological Notes.