COVID-19 Impact and Recovery Report: Travel-Related Measures
Updated: January 5, 2022

This document provides an evergreen assessment of the situation in Canada. It has the following sections:

1. Travel-Related Measures: A summary of the travel and tourism-related measures in place in each province and territory. Current travel restrictions and self-isolation requirements are also available on Destination Canada’s website: https://caen-keepeexploring.canada.travel/covid-19-traveller-guidance

2. Methodological Notes: An explanation of the methodologies in the different sections and relevant sources.

1. TRAVEL-RELATED MEASURES

Please consult the Government of Canada website for the latest federal travel requirements: https://travel.gc.ca/travel-covid. Below is a summary of recent updates to federal travel requirements and advice:

- As of December 21, pre-arrival testing will be required for all travellers entering Canada, regardless of the length of trip. In addition, all fully vaccinated travellers arriving by air from departure points other than the United States, including Canadian citizens and permanent residents, will be subject to arrival testing. Fully vaccinated travellers will be required to quarantine while they await the results of their arrival test.
- As of December 15, the Public Health Agency of Canada is advising travellers, regardless of their vaccination status, to avoid non-essential travel internationally.
- As of November 30, 2020, travellers aged 12 years and older, with very limited exceptions, are required to show their Canadian COVID-19 proof of vaccination to depart from Canadian airports, on VIA Rail and Rocky Mountaineer trains, and on non-essential passenger vessels (e.g. cruise ships) on voyages of 24 hours or more departing from ports in Canada. To qualify as fully vaccinated, travellers must have received the full series of an accepted COVID-19 vaccine (or a full series of a combination of accepted vaccines), with the last dose at least 14 days prior to the date of travel.

In addition to federal government travel requirements, individual provinces and territories have implemented measures on travel between provinces and territories. The table below outlines self-isolation requirements for domestic and foreign travellers entering into each province or territory, as well as restrictions on travel across provincial and territorial borders. Tracking these measures is challenging given the fluid nature of COVID-19. This information, collected by provincial and territorial tourism marketing authorities and relevant tourism departments, is current as of January 5, 2022.

Travellel self-isolation required?

No self-isolation required for domestic travellers entering Ontario.

No self-isolation upon entering Ontario for fully vaccinated foreign nationals provided that they meet specific entry and testing requirements. Unvaccinated children under 12 years of age of fully vaccinated travellers are not required to quarantine upon entering Ontario, but must follow strict public health measures that include avoiding crowded settings.

Travellers entering Nunavut and James Bay may be required to self-isolate.

No self-isolation required for all other domestic travellers entering Quebec.

No self-isolation upon entering Quebec for fully vaccinated foreign nationals provided that they meet specific entry and testing requirements. Unvaccinated children under 12 years of age of fully vaccinated travellers are not required to quarantine upon entering Quebec, but must follow strict public health measures that include avoiding crowded settings.

No self-isolation required for fully vaccinated domestic travellers entering New Brunswick. Unvaccinated or partially vaccinated domestic travellers, including New Brunswick residents, are required to self-isolate for 14 days, or until receiving a negative result from testing on day 10.

No self-isolation upon entering New Brunswick for fully vaccinated foreign nationals provided that they meet specific entry and testing requirements. As of December 4, foreign nationals are required to get tested on days 5 and 10. Unvaccinated children under 12 years of age of fully vaccinated travellers are not required to quarantine upon entering New Brunswick, but must follow strict public health measures that include avoiding crowded settings.

Domestic travellers entering Nova Scotia from all provinces and territories must follow self-isolation protocol dependent on vaccination status: 2 doses at least 14 days before arrival = no self-isolation; 1 or 0 doses = 7-day self-isolation and 2 negative tests. Children under 12 travelling domestically are required to follow same isolation protocol as the least vaccinated adult they are travelling with.

No self-isolation upon entering Nova Scotia for fully vaccinated foreign nationals provided that they meet specific entry and testing requirements. Unvaccinated children under 12 years of age of fully vaccinated travellers are not required to quarantine upon entering Nova Scotia, but must follow strict public health measures that include avoiding crowded settings.

As of December 22, all fully vaccinated travellers entering Prince Edward Island with a PEI pass will be required to self-isolate for 4 days. Travellers entering the province will be given two rapid tests and will be required to complete the tests on day 2 and day 4. If both tests are negative, or a day 4 negative PCR test is received from a Health PEI testing clinic, that individual can leave isolation.

Unvaccinated or partially vaccinated PEI residents and Canadian visitors entering Prince Edward Island from any province or territory are required to complete a declaration form and self-isolate for 8 days, with testing at point of entry and on day 8.

Fully vaccinated foreign nationals can enter Prince Edward Island provided that they meet specific entry and testing requirements. Unvaccinated children under 12 years of age of fully vaccinated travellers must follow strict public health measures that include avoiding crowded settings.

As of December 21, all fully vaccinated travellers entering Newfoundland & Labrador will be required to self-isolate for 5 days. Travellers entering the province will be given rapid tests and will need to take a rapid test every day for five days. If all tests are negative, they can leave isolation after five full days or 120 hours have passed. Children between ages five and 11 that are not fully vaccinated are and travelling with parents or guardians that are fully vaccinated, will also need to self-isolate for five days with five rapid tests. After five days, they will then follow modified self-isolation until 14 days have passed. It is not mandatory for children under five to have a test, as long as the parents or guardians take their rapid tests. They can leave full isolation with their parents and continue on modified self-isolation until 14 days have passed. Anyone returning from post-secondary institutions, including Newfoundland and Labrador will also be required to take a PCR test upon arrival to the province. If both the PCR test and five rapid tests are negative, they can leave isolation after five full days have passed. If travellers choose not to be tested, they will need to isolate for 14 days.

The province’s definition of fully vaccinated includes specific allowance for people with vaccines not authorized by Health Canada or the World Health Organization (WHO) but these vaccines must be followed by one dose of a COVID-19 mRNA vaccine authorized by Health Canada at least 14 days before arriving in the province.

Partially vaccinated or unvaccinated travellers must still isolate until they receive a negative PCR test on day seven or later, and are then subject to modified self-isolation for the remaining 14 days. Mixed groups of vaccinated, partially vaccinated and/or unvaccinated adult travellers must follow the rules for unvaccinated travellers.

Fully vaccinated foreign nationals can enter Newfoundland & Labrador provided that they meet specific entry and testing requirements. Unvaccinated children under 12 years of age of fully vaccinated travellers must follow strict public health measures that include avoiding crowded settings.

Travel restrictions?

No travel restrictions for domestic travellers entering Ontario.

Fully vaccinated foreign nationals can travel to Ontario provided that they meet specific entry and testing requirements. Entry will continue to be prohibited for foreign nationals who are not fully vaccinated.

As of December 31, Quebec has a curfew in place between the hours of 10pm to 5am people pre-vaccine must move outside of their homes during these hours with few exceptions (e.g. going to work or medical reasons).

Travel to Nunavut and James Bay is restricted to essential travel only.

No other travel restrictions for domestic travellers entering Quebec.

Fully vaccinated foreign nationals can travel to Quebec provided that they meet specific entry and testing requirements. Entry will continue to be prohibited for foreign nationals who are not fully vaccinated.

All Canadian residents entering New Brunswick, including New Brunswick residents re-entering the province, must register or have a multi-use pass, with restrictions for those who are not fully vaccinated.

Fully vaccinated foreign nationals can travel to New Brunswick provided that they meet specific entry and testing requirements and have a multi-use pass. Entry will continue to be prohibited for foreign nationals who are not fully vaccinated.

As of December 17, travel to or from Prince Edward Island to participate in organized activities or arts and culture-related gatherings is not permitted.

Residents of Prince Edward Island are advised to avoid non-essential out-of-province travel.

All Canadian residents can travel to Prince Edward Island with restrictions for those who do not have a PEI Pass. A PEI Pass will only be issued to individuals who have received their second dose of an approved vaccine at least 14 days prior.

Fully vaccinated foreign nationals who have a PEI Pass can travel to Prince Edward Island provided that they meet specific entry and testing requirements. Entry will continue to be prohibited for foreign nationals who are not fully vaccinated.

All Canadians are permitted to enter Newfoundland and Labrador. All travellers can complete the Travel Form up to 30 days prior to their travel date.

Fully vaccinated foreign nationals who have submitted the Travel Form up to 30 days prior to their travel date can travel to Newfoundland and Labrador provided that they meet specific entry and testing requirements. |          | Entry into Nunavut requires authorization from the territory’s Chief Public Health Officer. Authorization may be granted for residents, critical workers, those travelling within the Common Travel Area of Churchill, Manitoba, and non-residents entering for family reunification, exercising Aboriginal or treaty rights, or engaging in wilderness tourism with an operator that has an approved Wilderness Tourism Operator COVID-19 Operations Plan. |
|          | Fully vaccinated foreign nationals may be authorized to travel to Nunavut provided that they meet specific entry and testing requirements. Entry will continue to be prohibited for foreign nationals who are not fully vaccinated. |

Most Parks Canada places are open and welcoming visitors with adjustments to access and services. Please consult the Parks Canada website for an updated list of some Parks Canada locations with special instructions: https://www.pc.gc.ca/en/voyage-travel/secuirty-safety/covid-19-infocations

Most provinces and territories have implemented a framework to guide reopening strategies catered to their individual circumstances. Since each province and territory is starting from a different baseline to implement the reopening of their local economy, the phases and stages are not congruent across jurisdictions. The table below outlines the current status of restrictions on tourism-related sectors as of January 5, 2022. Unless noted, persons must gather and business must operate with sufficient social distancing measures in place. Many destinations require non-medical masks to be worn and all visitors should plan on having masks ready if needed.

2. METHODOLOGICAL NOTES

I. Travel-Related Measures: In conjunction with provincial and territorial partners, Destination Canada has sourced information directly from provincial and territorial government websites; additional insights are provided by provincial and territorial partners where relevant or where information from official sources is incomplete. The intention for this section is to provide the latest available information as of the date of the report. Given the evolving nature of these measures and phased opening strategies, readers are encouraged to seek information from official government sources for the most current information.
