This document provides a summary of the situation across all provinces and territories.

Note: Due to changes in COVID-19 testing policies in many jurisdictions starting in late December 2021, case counts will underestimate the total burden of disease.

Nunavut
- Residents returning from Churchill, MB to domestic leisure travel are not required to self-isolate, those returning from all other regions must self-isolate for 10 days in designated sites.

Northwest Territories
- Fully vaccinated residents returning from outside of the territory for domestic leisure travel are not required to self-isolate. Those arriving in smaller communities or fully vaccinated must self-isolate for 10 days or until receipt of a negative test on day 6 or later.

Yukon
- No self-isolation requirements for residents returning from out-of-territory for domestic leisure travel.

British Columbia
- No self-isolation requirements for residents returning from out-of-province for domestic leisure travel.

Alberta
- No self-isolation requirements for residents returning from out-of-province for domestic leisure travel.

Saskatchewan
- Fully vaccinated residents returning from outside of the province for domestic leisure travel are not required to self-isolate. 14-day self-isolation required for those who are not fully vaccinated.

Manitoba
- No self-isolation requirements for residents returning from out-of-province for domestic leisure travel.

Ontario
- No self-isolation requirements for residents returning from out-of-province for domestic leisure travel.

Quebec
- No self-isolation requirements for residents returning from outside of the province for domestic leisure travel. Residents returning to Quebec or James Bay from out-of-province may be required to self-isolate.

New Brunswick
- No self-isolation requirements for residents returning from out-of-province for domestic leisure travel.