

9.6 million Chinese long-haul leisure travellers intend to visit Canada in the next two years.*

Market Insights

Trip Motivators

Chinese travellers are looking for trips that deliver cultural, culinary and outdoor experiences – while also providing opportunities to de-stress. Canadian products that align with these needs will be favoured once outbound travel restrictions are lifted.

Winter Activities

The 2022 Beijing Winter Olympic Games stimulated interest in winter sports and activities within China. Canada can capitalize on this growing interest to raise awareness of its diversity of winter destinations and experiences.

Reliance on Travel Agents

Once bookings open for foreign travel, health and safety are anticipated to remain a major consideration in Chinese planning and booking behaviours. Travel agents will continue to be relied upon to navigate booking complexities.
