

KEY TAKEAWAYS

#1

Tourism spend recovered beyond pre-pandemic levels in 2023

Supported by ongoing healthy domestic tourism spending (110% of 2019) and recovered international tourism spending (103%), total tourism revenue in Q4 2023 reached 108% of pre-pandemic levels.

With this strong performance in the fourth quarter of the year, total annual tourism revenue surpassed pre-pandemic levels in 2023, reaching 113% of 2019 tourism spending.

#2

International visitation made progress towards recovery in 2023

With particularly strong performance in the last quarter of the year, international overnight arrivals reached 83% of 2019 levels in 2023, with 18.3 million visitors annually.

Visitation from the US reached 85% of 2019 levels, while international (non-US) markets were at 78% annually.

#3

Interest in travel to Canada remains strong

Demand from our key markets, as indicated by search volume for Canadian travel, remained high at the end of the year, with all markets surpassing the pre-pandemic baseline by the end of Q4.

Additionally, Canada remains high on the consideration list among American travellers for an international trip in the next year.
