

Program Criteria

Who should apply?

We encourage businesses that sell a unique travel experience and are doing business internationally to apply to the Canadian Signature Experiences (CSE) program.

We are looking for a range of Canadian visitor experiences that will entice international travellers to choose Canada over competing destinations. The experiences must exemplify Canada's tourism brand and engage travellers with the culture, people or geography in ways that are authentic and memorable.

The program gives qualifying tourism businesses a chance to reach key international audiences by way of Destination Canada marketing, media and sales activities that cover 11 markets.

CSE Program Criteria

To be eligible for the CSE program, a company must:

1. Deliver a travel experience that meets the definition of a Canadian Signature Experience¹
2. Have been in operation for a minimum of two years, delivering travel experiences²
3. Have a website with a clear call to action for sales
4. Do business internationally, or be actively invested in targeted international marketing activities in one of Destination Canada's target markets³
5. Be working with the travel trade and meet the nationally accepted export-ready criteria⁴
6. Be the owner, provider and deliverer of the travel experience, and the point of sales for customers⁵
7. Have rights-free, high-resolution images of the proposed Signature Experience

Think you meet our CSE Program Criteria? Take the Pre-qualifying Quiz to find out if your company is ready to be part of the CSE program.

¹ Canadian Signature Experiences engage visitors in a series of memorable travel activities, revealed over time, that are inherently personal, engage the senses, and make connections on an emotional, physical, spiritual, intellectual or social level. Experiences are the new “currency” that is differentiating tourism businesses and destinations around the world. They are expanding the ways travellers can engage with people, places and cultures. For tourism businesses, embracing experiential travel requires a true commitment to “thinking like a traveller.” Most importantly, these experiences are not about packaging and discounts; they’re about layering on value that people are willing to pay for.

² The CSE program is specifically designed to support tourism export market revenue for Canada. As part of this program, we look for businesses that are export-ready and can demonstrate a proven business track record. We believe it takes a minimum of two years to develop the required operational capacities to develop, grow and sustain business from international markets.

³ A company must be actively investing dollars in advertising and promotional activities that purposefully target international visitors. Actively making marketing investments (financial or in-kind) in partnership with a PMO’s international marketing efforts is also acceptable. Destination Canada’s target markets include the UK, France, Germany, Australia, USA, Japan, China, South Korea, Mexico, Brazil and India.

⁴ A company must be compliant with the nationally accepted Export-Ready Criteria. A major emphasis of the CSE program is working with the travel trade to assist in both developing awareness of Canada as a destination, and ensuring there is a critical mass of purchasable travel experiences in our international target markets.

⁵ Companies that package and/or resell other companies’ travel experiences are ineligible for membership. An application submitted jointly, by no more than two partnering businesses, may be considered. In such instances, partnering companies must certify that they co-own, co-manage and/or co-deliver the designated Signature Experience described in the application. At least one of the two partners must be export-ready.
